

Statement on CDA Commissioner Ginger Evans:

The Gary/Chicago International Airport wishes to welcome new Chicago Department of Aviation Commissioner Ginger Evans. As Chicago's third airport, we look forward to working with the commissioner to advance the area's aviation goals and drive economic growth to the entire region.

“On behalf of the Airport, I want to congratulate Commissioner Evans on her new position and welcome her to Chicagoland. Commissioner Evans' professional record precedes her, and I look forward to collaborating with her as part of the Compact.” Dan Vicari, Interim Director, Gary/Chicago International Airport.
